

I am ardently opposed to any weakening of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. If I want to secure the services of a banking institution, I will contact them. Like you, I do not want to be bothered with needless intrusions for services in which I have no interest or need. Please deny the request by the CBA to get their foot in the door. Thank you for your indulgence.